

Stanford Youth Solutions

Permanent Family Connections Program Program Logic Model (Resource Family Path)

Overarching Goal:

Stanford Youth Solutions' Permanent Family Connections Program is designed to achieve permanency for children and youth who require either temporary or permanent out of home placement. Every youth served should either reunify with birth family or be placed with a family that will make a lifetime commitment to the child.

